

Teampower: Support Each Other with Peer Counselling

TwentyOne Skills

Objective

Peer-to-peer support techniques are becoming increasingly important in our everyday lives and in our society. Despite different focuses and objectives, all approaches are based on the fundamental idea of participation and exchange at eye level. One method is “Peer Counselling” or “Intervision”. In our eLearning course you will learn more about the background and the application of this method in your everyday work life.

Description

- What is “peer counselling” and “intervision”?
- Get to know the goal of peer counselling
- How to apply peer counselling and intervision in a right way
